

FV III GRADUATION PHOTOGRAPH

AT LWTT OFFICES MARCH 2007

PICTURE BRIEFING

DEGREES OF SUCCESS: Linked Work and Training Trust (LWTT) has celebrated the success of its latest class to graduate. The professional trainers, based in Grangemouth's Newhouse Business Park and sponsored by agencies including Falkirk Council and the European Social Fund, congratulated them on achieving their Bachelor of Community Learning and Development degrees from Glasgow University. As part of their training, students, including council employees and members of Central Scotland Police, work with development agencies and employers in their own areas to deliver a better deal to disadvantaged communities. Our picture shows, from left, back row, Kenny Ramage (Stirling Council), Lee Stevenson (Clackmannanshire), Carolann Wright (Falkirk); from left middle row Anne Donoghue (Central Scotland Police), Finlay Robertson (community safety), Lorna Fraser (Clackmannanshire), Fiona Craig (LWTT director); front row, LWTT lecturers Alex Downie and Isobel Brown
